Information for Stallholders:

- Extra display equipment such as rails or carousels must be declared on the application form. The Committee reserves the right to charge if stalls expand beyond the space allocated.
- The siting of the stalls is at the absolute discretion of the Committee.
- As a courtesy to other stallholders, and to avoid duplication, please be aware that if you bring undeclared items to the Fair you may be asked to remove them from your stall.
- Refunds for cancellations are at the discretion of the committee and may not be considered if a stallholder cancels for whatever reason up to two weeks before the event.
- Insurance cover is the responsibility of individual stallholders (PA and PPEL insurance). Please attach proof on the application form.
- Any electrical equipment must have a PAT test certificate.
- Stallholders are responsible for leaving their site clean, tidy and undamaged.
- Stallholders must be aware that if any damage is caused to the fabric of Hylands House, they are liable for the cost of any repairs, or replacements. Stallholders must report to the Fair Organiser, any incident or accident to any person or property that involves loss or could be expected to give rise to a claim.
- I consent to my submitted data being collected and stored.

We will endeavour to notify applicants as soon as possible, and if your application has been successful, we will send you a booking form and a request for payment.
