

How did a marginal dialect spoken in the late ninth century by 200,000 people become the world's language spoken by 1,600,000,000 people today?

AMOROUS OR LOVING?

The Highly Peculiar Tale of English and the English

Wednesday 8th April 2026

6.30pm for 7pm

St Andrews Church Marks Tey
CO6 1LW

Sir Rupert Gavin has been a central figure in UK's cultural, historical, media and business worlds for the last 40 years. He was CEO of BBC Worldwide, MD of British Telecom, CEO of Odeon Cinemas, Chairman of Historic Royal Palaces, Chairman of the Honours Committee for Arts and Media, and he is a former Master of the Grocers' Company. He is also one of the country's leading theatre producers with 200 West End and Broadway shows under his belt, winning 28 Olivier awards on the way.

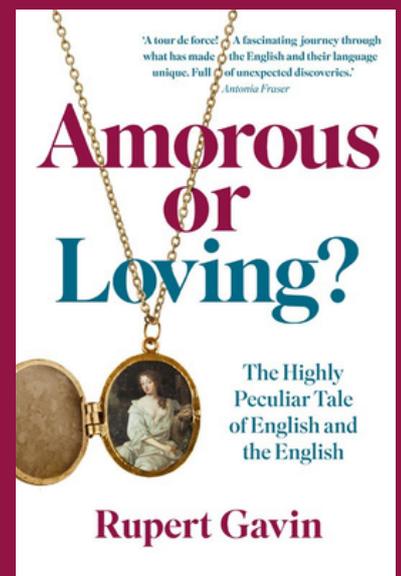

Charity No 236033

Members £20
Non members £25
including wine & canapés

Social@friendsofessexchurches.org.uk
Ticketebo 01617 680580

'A tour de force! A fascinating journey through what has made the English and their language unique. Full of unexpected discoveries.'
Antonia Fraser

8/4/26
7pm

BOOK NOW

